Imagination Station to Host Monster Bash

Annual event is a spook-tacular night of science for members

TOLEDO, Ohio – Imagination Station members are invited to a night of ghoulishly fun activities and creepy science demonstrations. Monster Bash is 6 – 8pm on Thursday, October 24.

One of the science center's most-anticipated parties each year, the Monster Bash is exclusively for Imagination Station Members. Attendees are invited to wear their favorite costume and show off their dance moves with spooky Zumba, get up close to some cold-blooded creatures with a reptile demonstration and use a microscope to discover the tiny creepy crawlies that live unnoticed around us, on us and inside us.

Other Monster Bash activities include:

- Exploring the body's healing powers with zombie wounds
- Learning how a solid mysteriously turns into a gas with ghostly disappearing bubbles
- Face painting
- Cider, donuts and s'mores
- Trick-or-treat stations

Monster Bash, sponsored by Meijer is one of several free annual events hosted for Imagination Station members. Non-members wishing to attend may purchase a membership online at imaginationstationtoledo.org/membership or by calling 419.244.2674 ext. 230.
